LEGAL NOTICE

Date: [Insert Current Date]

To the Honourable Landlord of Property No.: [Property Number], [Landlord's Address], Mumbai - Maharashtra

Subject: Refusal to Return Security Deposit as per Legal Obligation under Transfer of Property Act 1882, Section 108(q)

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this notice with reference to the security deposit amounting to Rs. 50,000 which I paid upon vacating my rented premises at [Property Address], Mumbai - Maharashtra on [Date of Vacation]. As per our agreement and as is customary in India's landlord-tenant laws under the Transfer of Property Act 1882, Section 108(q), I am entitled to receive my security deposit back within a reasonable time after vacating.

It has been two months since I moved out and despite multiple requests for reimbursement made via email on [Dates], there is no sign of the return of said amount or any acknowledgement from your end regarding its status, which leads me to believe that you are unlawfully withholding my security deposit. As per Section 108(q), I am entitled not only to receive back this sum but also an interest at a rate of 12% per annum on the amount due till it is returned in full, which amounts to Rs. [Calculated Interest Amount] as of today's date.

I urge you to adhere strictly to your legal obligations and return my security deposit along with accrued interest without further delay or hassle on the forthcoming due dates specified by law. Failure to comply will leave me no choice but to seek judicial intervention, wherein I shall claim not only the full amount of Rs. 50,000 plus an additional penalty as per Section 108(q) and prevailing interest rates at that time, along with reasonable attorney's fees for legal costs incurred due to this dispute.

Yours faithfully,
